

International workshop

LIFE THROUGH DEATH

Mentality and elements of everyday life through funerary and memorial practices in ancient and medieval Europe and western Asia, archaeological and textual evidence

Looking at the theme through a cross-cultural perspective

29-30 April 2024
Maison de l'Orient
et de la Méditerranée

Amphi Benveniste
& Room GAI.303
GAIA Building
86, rue Pasteur
Lyon 7^e - France

Online attendance

https://cnrs.zoom.us/meeting/register/tJMkcuyqDwpHtcnKfADMP-cBzM_FWQqKa-k

Organizer & information

Iryna TESLENKO Collegium de Lyon, ArAr
teslenko.i2016@gmail.com

Zahra KOUZEHGARI Collegium de Lyon, Archéorient
z.kouzehgar@gmail.com

Nicolette PAVLIDES Collegium de Lyon, HISOMA
Nicolette.Pavlides@ed.ac.uk

Anne BAUD Université Lumière Lyon 2, ArAr
anne.baud@mom.fr

Anne FLAMMIN CNRS, ArAr
anne.flammin@mom.fr

Virginie MULLER
Université Lumière Lyon 2, Archéorient virginie.muller@mom.fr

Pictures, top to bottom:

L'apparition de l'ange aux femmes Myrophores, fin du XV^e siècle – début du XVI^e, 81 × 62,5 cm, Musée russe, Saint-Petersbourg, © Zheny Mironosicy u Groba Gospodnja.

White-ground lekythos, two women with offerings at tomb © The Trustees of the British Museum.

Man's skeleton with a ring made of rare white jade over one eye socket, Bronze Age Glazkov culture, Maloe More, Baikal lake © Dmitry Kichigin.